

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

-----X
Jenny Coronel Bonilla, on behalf of herself and others similarly situated in the proposed FLSA Collective Action,

Case No.:

Plaintiff,

Jury Trial Demanded

- against -

COMPLAINT

Frank Nani, and Infinity Painting Co., Inc.,

Defendants.

-----X
Plaintiff Jenny Coronel Bonilla (“Plaintiff” or “Coronel Bonilla”), on behalf of herself and others similarly situated, by and through her attorneys, Levin-Epstein & Associates, P.C., upon personal knowledge as to herself and upon information and belief as to others, brings this complaint against Defendant Frank Nani (the “Individual Defendant”) and Infinity Painting Co., Inc. (the “Corporate Defendant”, and together with the Individual Defendant, the “Defendants”), and states as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiff brings this lawsuit seeking recovery, for herself and all other similarly situated individuals, against Defendants’ violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq. (“FLSA”), and violations of Articles 6 and 19 of the New York State Labor Law (“NYLL”) and their supporting New York State Department of Labor regulations.

2. Plaintiff seeks injunctive and declaratory relief and to recover unpaid minimum wages, overtime wages, liquidated and statutory damages, pre- and post-judgment interest, and attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to the FLSA, NYLL, and the NYLL's Wage Theft Prevention Act ("WTPA").

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction of this case pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216 (b), 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and 28 U.S.C. § 1337, and has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims under the NYLL pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

4. This Court has federal question jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because her claims arise under the FLSA.

5. Venue is proper in this District under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c), because all events relevant to this action occurred in this District, and the acts and omissions giving rise to the claims herein alleged took place in this District.

THE PARTIES

PLAINTIFF JENNY CORONEL BONILLA

6. Plaintiff Coronel Bonilla is a resident of Brooklyn, New York.

7. Plaintiff Coronel Bonilla was employed as a general worker and paint technician at Defendants' painting company, located at: (i) 1978 Richmond Terrace, Suite 5, Staten Island, NY 10302, known as "Infinity Painting".

8. Plaintiff Coronel Bonilla was employed as a non-managerial employee at Infinity Painting from on or around July 18, 2020 to, through and including, March 28, 2024.

9. At all relevant times, Plaintiff has been an employee within the meaning of Section 3(e) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203(e).

10. At all relevant times, Plaintiff has been a manual worker within the meaning of NYLL § 191(1)(a).

DEFENDANT INFINITY PAINTING CO., INC.

11. Upon information and belief, Defendant Infinity Painting Co., Inc. is a domestic corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York. Upon information and belief, it maintains a principal place of business at 1978 Richmond Terrace, Suite 5, Staten Island, NY 10302, and an alternate address at: (ii) 3 Diana Lane, Freehold, NJ, 07728.

12. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendant Infinity Painting Co., Inc.: (i) has had and continues to have employees engaged in commerce or in the production of goods and services for commerce and handling, selling, or otherwise working on goods or materials that have been moved in or produced for commerce by any person and (ii) has had and continues to have an annual gross volume of sales of not less than $500,000.00.

13. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendant Infinity Painting Co., Inc. was and is a covered employer within the meaning of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203(d) and, at all times relevant to this Complaint, employed employees, including Plaintiff.

14. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendant Infinity Painting Co., Inc. was and is an employer within the meaning of the 29 U.S.C. 201 et seq. and NYLL Section 190(3), and employed employees, including Plaintiff.

15. Defendant Infinity Painting Co., Inc. possessed substantial control over Plaintiff's (and other similarly situated employees') working conditions, and over the policies and practices with respect to the employment and compensation of Plaintiff, and all similarly situated individuals, referred to herein.

16. Defendant Infinity Painting Co., Inc. had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff, control the terms and conditions of employment, and determine the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiff's services.

DEFENDANT FRANK NANI

17. Defendant Frank Nani is an individual engaging (or who was engaged) in business within this judicial district during the relevant time period.

18. Defendant Frank Nani is sued individually and in his capacity as an owner, officer and/or agent of the Corporate Defendant.

19. Defendant Frank Nani possesses or possessed operational control over the Corporate Defendant, or controlled significant functions of the Corporate Defendant.

20. Defendant Frank Nani determined the wages and compensation of employees, including Plaintiff, established the schedules of employees, maintained employee records, and had the authority to hire and fire employees.

21. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendant Frank Nani was and is an employer within the meaning of the 29 U.S.C. 201 et seq. and NYLL Section 190(3), and employed employees, including Plaintiff.

DEFENDANTS CONSTITUTE JOINT EMPLOYERS

22. Defendants own, operate and/or control the business located at: 1978 Richmond Terrace, Suite 5, Staten Island, NY 10302 (i.e., Infinity Painting).

23. The Individual Defendant possesses operational control over the Corporate Defendant, possesses an ownership interest in the Corporate Defendant, and controls significant functions of the Corporate Defendant.

24. Defendants are associated and joint employers, act in the interest of each other with respect to employees, pay employees by the same method, and share control over the employees.

25. Each Defendant possessed substantial control over Plaintiff's (and other similarly situated employees') working conditions, and over the policies and practices with respect to the employment and compensation of Plaintiff, and all similarly situated individuals, referred to herein.

26. Defendants jointly employed Plaintiff, and all similarly situated individuals, and are Plaintiff's (and all similarly situated individuals') employers within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. 201 et seq. and the NYLL.

27. In the alternative, Defendants constitute a single employer of Plaintiff and/or similarly situated individuals.

28. Upon information and belief, the Individual Defendant operates the Corporate Defendant as either an alter ego of herself, and/or fails to operate the Corporate Defendant as entities legally separate and apart from themselves, by, among other things:

- a. failing to adhere to the corporate formalities necessary to operate the Corporate Defendant as a separate and legally distinct entity;
- b. defectively forming or maintaining the Corporate Defendant, by among other things failing to hold annual meetings or maintaining appropriate corporate records;
- c. transferring assets and debts freely as between all Defendants;
- d. operating the Corporate Defendant for their own benefit as the majority shareholder;
- e. operating the Corporate Defendant for his own benefit and maintaining control over them as closed corporations or closely controlled entities;
- f. intermingling assets and debts of their own with the Corporate Defendant;
- g. diminishing and/or transferring assets of the Corporate Defendant to protect his own interests; and
- h. other actions evincing a failure to adhere to the corporate form.

29. At all relevant times, Defendants were Plaintiff's employers within the meaning of the FLSA and NYLL.

30. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff, control the terms and conditions of employment, and determine the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiff's services.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

31. Plaintiff and other similarly situated individuals are individuals who have worked for Defendants in similarly-titled, hourly paid position, during the statutory period.

32. Plaintiff and other similarly situated individuals all shared similar job titles, training, job descriptions and job tasks, during the statutory period.

33. Plaintiff was an employee of Defendants.

34. Plaintiff was employed as a general worker and paint technician at Infinity Painting, from on or around July 18, 2020 to, through and including, March 28, 2024.

35. Plaintiff regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as painting supplies which were necessary to perform her duties as a general worker and paint technician.

36. Plaintiff's work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

37. From approximately July 18, 2020 to, through and including, March 28, 2024, Plaintiff worked approximately six (6) days per week, as follows: Monday through Saturday from approximately 7:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. or 7:00 p.m. (i.e., 8 to 12 hours per day), for a total of approximately 45 to 78 hours during each of the weeks.

38. From approximately July 18, 2020 to, through and including, December 2022, Defendants paid Plaintiff $15 per hour, for all hours worked, bi-weekly.

39. From approximately January 2023 to, through and including, March 28, 2024,

Defendants paid Plaintiff $16 per hour, for all hours worked, bi-weekly.

40. However, over the course of the last year or so of Plaintiff's employment, i.e., from March 2023 to, through and including March 28, 2024, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff approximately $7,500 in wages.

41. For example, on or around February 24, 2024, Defendants partially paid Plaintiff back-paid wages of $1,600.

42. For example, on or around March 1 , 2024, Defendants partially paid Plaintiff back-paid wages of $950.

43. As of the date of this filing, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff approximately $7,500 in owed wages, for work performed from approximately March 2023 to, through and including March 28, 2024.

44. Plaintiff was required to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week, but never received an overtime premium of one and one-half times her regular rate of pay for those hours.

45. Defendants never granted Plaintiff with meal breaks or rest periods of any length.

46. Plaintiff was not required to keep track of Plaintiff's time, nor to Plaintiff's knowledge, did the Defendants utilize any time tracking device, such as sign in sheets or punch cards, that accurately reflected Plaintiff's actual hours worked.

47. No notification, either in the form of posted notices, or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff regarding wages are required under the FLSA or NYLL.

48. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff a statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

49. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff, in Spanish (Plaintiff's primary language), of Plaintiff's rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL § 195(1).

50. Defendants' failure to provide accurate wage notices and accurate wage statements denied Plaintiff their statutory right to receive true and accurate information about the nature of their employment and related compensation policies.

51. Moreover, Defendant's breach of these obligations injured Plaintiff by denying Plaintiff the right to know the conditions of their compensation, resulting in the underpayment of wages.

FLSA COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

52. Plaintiff brings the First and Second Claims for Relief as a collective action pursuant to FLSA §16(b), 29 U.S.C. §216(b), on behalf of all non-exempt persons (including but not limited to general workers and paint technicians) employed by Defendants on or after the date that is three years before filing of the Complaint in this case, as defined herein ("FLSA Collective Plaintiffs").

53. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and FLSA Collective Plaintiff is and have been similarly situated, have had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and are and have been subject to Defendants' decision, policy, plan and common policies, programs, practices, procedures, protocols, routines and rules willfully failing and refusing to pay them at the legally required overtime wage for all hours worked in excess of forty hours per work week. These claims of the Plaintiff are essentially the same as those of the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs.

54. The First and Second Claims for Relief are properly brought under and maintained as an opt-in collective action pursuant to under FLSA §16(b), 29 U.S.C. §216(b). The FLSA Collective Plaintiff is readily ascertainable. For purpose of notice and others related to this action, their names and addresses are readily available from the Defendants. Notice can be provided to the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs via first class mail to the last address known to Defendants

55. Plaintiff reserves the right to re-define the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs prior to notice or collective certification, and thereafter, as necessary.

FIRST CLAIM
(FLSA – Unpaid Minimum Wages, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq.)

56. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

57. Defendants willfully and intentionally failed to compensate Plaintiff with the applicable minimum hourly wage in violation of the FLSA, 29 U.S. Code § 206.

58. Defendants have failed to make a good faith effort to comply with the FLSA with respect to compensation of Plaintiff.

59. Due to Defendants' violations of the FLSA, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and FLSA Collective Plaintiffs, are entitled to recover from Defendants, jointly and severally, their unpaid minimum wages and an equal amount in the form of liquidated damages, as well as reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of the action, pursuant to the FLSA, all in an amount to be determined at trial. 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

SECOND CLAIM
(FLSA – Unpaid Overtime Wages, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq.)

60. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

61. At all relevant times to this action, Plaintiff is a covered, non-exempt employee within the meaning of the FLSA.

62. Defendants were required to pay Plaintiff one and one-half (1 1/2) times the regular rate at which Plaintiff was employed for all hours worked in excess of forty hours in a workweek pursuant to the overtime wage provisions set forth in the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 207, et seq.

63. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff the overtime wages to which they are entitled under the FLSA.

64. Defendants willfully violated the FLSA by knowingly and intentionally failing to pay Plaintiff overtime wages.

65. Due to Defendants' willful violations of the FLSA, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and FLSA Collective Plaintiffs, are entitled to recover their unpaid overtime wages, liquidated damages, reasonable attorney's fees and cost of the action and pre-judgment and post-judgment interest.

THIRD CLAIM
(NYLL – Unpaid Minimum Wages, N.Y. Stat. § 650 et seq.)

66. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

67. Defendants willfully and intentionally failed to compensate Plaintiff with the applicable minimum hourly wage in violation of the NYLL §650 et seq.

68. Defendants have failed to make a good faith effort to comply with the NYLL with respect to compensation of Plaintiff.

69. Due to Defendants' violations of the NYLL, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and FLSA Collective Plaintiffs, are entitled to recover from Defendants, jointly and severally, their unpaid minimum wages and an equal amount in the form of liquidated damages, as well as reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of the action, in an amount to be determined at trial, pursuant to the NYLL § 663.

FOURTH CLAIM
(NYLL – Unpaid Overtime Wages)

70. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

71. Plaintiff is a covered, non-exempt employee within the meaning of the NYLL and supporting New York Department of Labor (“NYDOL”) Regulations.

72. Under the NYLL and supporting NYDOL Regulations, Defendants are required to pay Plaintiff one and one half times the regular rate of pay, which shall not be less than the minimum wage, for all hours they worked in excess of forty.

73. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff the overtime wages to which they are entitled under the NYLL.

74. Defendants willfully violated the NYLL by knowingly and intentionally failing to pay Plaintiff overtime wages.

75. Due to Defendants’ willful violations of the NYLL, Plaintiff is entitled to recover their unpaid overtime wages, liquidated damages, reasonable attorney’s fees and cost of the action and pre-judgment and post-judgment interest.

FIFTH CLAIM
(NYLL WTPA– Failure to Provide Wage Notices)

76. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

77. The NYLL and the WTPA require employers to provide all employees with a written notice of wage rates at the time of hire.

78. In violation of NYLL §195 (1), Defendants failed to furnish to Plaintiff at the time of hiring, or whenever their rate(s) of pay changed, with a wage notice containing the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other, allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer in accordance with NYLL §191; the name of the employer; any “doing business as” names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer’s main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address, if different; the telephone number of the employer, and anything otherwise required by law.

79. Due to Defendants’ violations of NYLL §195 (1), Plaintiff is entitled to recover their liquidated damages, reasonable attorney’s fees and cost and disbursement of the action, pursuant to the NYLL §198 (1-b).

SIXTH CLAIM
(Violation of the Wage Statement Provisions of the NYLL)

80. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

81. With each payment of wages, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with a statement listing each of the following the dates of work covered by the payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; the number of regular hours worked; the number of overtime hours worked, as required by the NYLL § 195(3).

82. As a result of Defendant’s violation of the WTPA, Plaintiff is entitled to damages of at least $150 per week during which the violations occurred.

SEVENTH CLAIM
(Failure to Pay Timely Wages)

83. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

84. NYLL § 191(1)(a) prohibits employers from paying manual workers at no less than on a weekly basis.

85. As described above, throughout her employment with Defendants, Plaintiff was paid bi-weekly.

86. As a result of Defendants' violation of NYLL § 191(1)(a), Plaintiff is entitled to recover their liquidated damages, reasonable attorney's fees and cost and disbursement of the action, pursuant to the NYLL §198 (1-a).

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and FLSA Collective Plaintiffs, respectfully request that this Court enter a judgment:

- a. authorizing Plaintiff at the earliest possible time to give notice of this collective action, or that the Court issue such notice, to all persons who are presently, or have up through the extent allowable under the statute of limitations and including the date of issuance of court-supervised notice, been employed by Defendants as nonexempt employees. Such notice shall inform them that the civil notice has been filed, of the nature of the action, of their right to join this lawsuit if they believe they were denied minimum wages and premium overtime wages;
- b. certification of this case as a collective action pursuant to the FLSA;
- c. issuance of notice pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), to all similarly situated members of the FLSA opt-in class, apprising them of the pendency of this action, and permitting them to assert timely FLSA claims and state claims in this action by filing individual Consent to Sue forms pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), and appointing Plaintiff and their counsel to represent the FLSA Collective Plaintiff;
- d. declaring that Defendants violated the minimum wage provisions of the FLSA, the NYLL and the NYDOL regulations;
- e. declaring that Defendants violated the overtime wage provisions of the FLSA, the NYLL and the NYDOL regulations;

- f. declaring that Defendants violated the notice statement pay provisions of the NYLL and WTPA;
- g. declaring that Defendants violated the tip theft provisions of the FLSA;
- h. declaring that Defendants violated the timely pay provisions of the NYLL;
- i. awarding Plaintiff unpaid minimum wages;
- j. awarding Plaintiff unpaid overtime wages;
- k. awarding Plaintiff liquidated damages in an amount equal to the total amount of wages found to be due;
- l. awarding Plaintiff liquidated damages in an amount equal to the total amount of untimely paid wages found to be due;
- m. awarding unpaid wages under the NYLL;
- n. awarding Plaintiff statutory damages as a result of Defendants' failure to furnish accurate wage notice pursuant to the NYLL;
- o. awarding Plaintiff pre- and post-judgment interest under the NYLL;
- p. awarding Plaintiff reasonable attorneys' fees and the costs and disbursements of this action; and
- q. Such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.
